

Introduction

God promises to deliver the Israelites from slavery.

Questions

1. What does the LORD tell Moses that he will do to Pharaoh?
2. What does the LORD say he will do for the Israelites?
3. Why does Moses think that Pharaoh will not take any notice of him this time?

Summary Points

- v 1 to 6 The LORD tells Moses that He will use a strong hand to release the Israelites from bondage. He reminds Moses that he made a covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob to give them the land of Canaan. He will bring the people out of bondage with great judgements
- v 7 and 8 The LORD will make them his people (see theme) and they will know that he is their God who delivers them from their bondage
- v 9 to 13 Moses is not convinced that Pharaoh will listen when God tells him to ask Pharaoh a second time to let the Israelites go. Nevertheless, the LORD insists that he speak to both the Israelites and Pharaoh
- v 14 to 27 Information about 3 sons of Jacob and in particular Moses' and Aaron's descent from Levi
- v 28 to 30 The LORD tells Moses to tell Pharaoh all that he has told him. Moses is again doubtful that Pharaoh will listen to him

Timeline AD 30 (see below)

Theme

Israel - God's chosen people

A selection of verses showing how this theme runs consistently through the Bible.

God makes it clear to the early Israelites that they are a chosen people:

Deuteronomy 14 verse 2

King Solomon, in his prayer at the dedication of the temple he has built, says about the Israelites:

1 Kings 8 verse 53

God tells the prophet Isaiah that the Israelites are special to him:

Isaiah 44 verse 21

God gives a similar message to the prophet Jeremiah:

Jeremiah 46 verses 27 and 28

The apostle Paul confirms that the Israelites are still God's chosen people:

Romans 11 verses 1 and 2
