

Introduction

Jesus teaches and heals people in Galilee (see map).

Questions

1. How did the Jews know that the Roman centurion loved their nation?
2. How was John more than just a prophet?
3. What does Jesus say about how much we will love after being forgiven?

Summary Points

- v 1 to 10 At Capernaum (see map), Jesus heals a centurion's dying servant
- v 11 to 17 At Nain (see map), Jesus raises a widow woman's son (see theme), as the coffin bearers are taking him to be buried
- v 18 to 23 John the Baptist sends a message to Jesus. Jesus replies that they should tell John about all the miracles and preaching they had seen and heard
- v 24 to 35 He then goes on to talk about John and compares himself with him
- v 36 to 50 At the house where Jesus is being entertained, a weeping woman has her sins forgiven after Jesus tells his Pharisee host a parable about forgiveness
