

Introduction

More advice on how to behave.

Questions

1. What is the royal law that we should keep and what are the implications if we don't keep it?
2. How will we be judged if we show no mercy?
3. How does James say he shows his faith?

Summary Points

- v 1 to 4 Favouritism is totally wrong
- v 5 to 13 God does not love the rich more than the poor. We should treat everyone the same. We are guilty if we don't, and we will be judged
- v 14 to 18 Faith is important (see theme) and is shown by the way we behave
- v 19 to 26 Abraham and Rahab are examples for us of faith in action
