

Introduction

We are encouraged to think seriously about the end of our lives.

Questions

1. What can't those who trust in riches do?
2. Why do men call lands after their own names?
3. Why is man like the animals, despite his riches?

Summary Points

- v 1 to 9 All are invited to realise that wealth is no help for a long-term future (see theme)
- v 10 to 12 All die and leave their wealth to others
- v 13 to 15 God alone can save people from Sheol, the grave
- v 16 to 20 The rich man can take nothing with him when he dies. Without understanding he perishes

Timeline 970 BC (see below)
