

Introduction

The all-powerful God gives a message of comfort to his people.

Questions

1. How does the voice of one crying compare flesh with the word of our God?
2. What are the nations like in comparison to God?
3. How does Isaiah compare men who become weary and faint with the everlasting God, the LORD?

Summary Points

- v 1 and 2 God comforts his people
- v 3 and 4 These verses are cited in the New Testament (Luke 3 v 4 and 5) as being fulfilled in the work of John the Baptist
- v 5 to 8 We are mortal but God's word is for ever
- v 9 to 11 God is seen as a shepherd caring for his flock
- v 12 to 24 No one is greater than God and nothing on earth can be compared with him
- v 25 to 31 God is all-powerful (see theme), the great Creator, but will support the weak

Timeline 850 BC (see below)

Theme

The power and permanence of God

A selection of verses showing that God is all-powerful and never changes.

King David tells the Israelites of God's greatness:

1 Chronicles 29 verses 10 and 11

The psalmist makes it clear that God has great power:

Psalms 147 verses 4 to 8

The prophet Jeremiah echoes the same thoughts:

Jeremiah 51 verses 15 and 16

God uses his power to bring about our salvation:

2 Peter 1 verses 3 and 4

The apostle James reminds us that God doesn't change:

James 1 verse 17

? Answers to questions

Verses which answer the questions:

Q 1: v 6 to 8, Q 2: v 15, Q 3: v 28 to 31

Bible timeline

